

This Report Card reflects our ongoing commitment to ensuring that we inspire others, share our stories, work in partnership, improve our knowledge, promote the benefits and impact of volunteering, and invest in it.

Our Strategy is a commitment to the importance and impact of volunteering. The investments made by the NSW Government will be responsive to emerging trends, they will be creative and volunteer-centred. Our investments will assist the sector to build its leadership capacity, to be agile and forward-thinking.
